

CONSTITUTION OF CHICAGO-KENT COLLEGE OF LAW HEALTH LAW SOCIETY

Article I: Name

The name of the chapter shall be Chicago-Kent College of Law Health Law Society (“Health Law Society”).

Article II: Objectives

The Health Law Society will serve to:

- Expose Chicago-Kent law students to the evolving area of health law through guest speakers, presentations, conferences and other educational events.
- Facilitate career opportunities through an ongoing effort to maintain active relationships with legal professionals in a health related field throughout the Midwest, in both the public and private sectors.
- Create work and internship opportunities for Chicago-Kent law students who are potentially interested in pursuing a career in health law.
- Heighten awareness of the impact of health law and policy within various demographics.
- Provide opportunities for law students to become actively involved in health law issues through service projects and partnerships with local non-profit groups.

Article III: Membership

SECTION 1: Any law student in good standing attending Chicago-Kent College of Law is eligible for membership in the Health Law Society.

SECTION 2: There will be no fees or dues charged for membership to any member who meets the criteria in Article III section 1.

Article IV: Officers

SECTION 1: The Health Law Society may have seven (7) officers: President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Community Liaison, Member at Large day division, and Member at Large evening division. Those of President, Vice President, and Treasurer are mandatory.

SECTION 2: The President shall have completed at least (1) year of law school. The President shall be the Health Law Society’s Chief Executive officer and shall preside over all Executive Committee and General Society meetings.

SECTION 3: The Vice President shall perform such duties as are delegated by the President and act as temporary Chief Executive in the temporary absence of the President.

- SECTION 4: The Secretary shall keep the minutes of all Health Law Society and Executive Committee meetings; shall be responsible for any society records, including e-mail and postage mail; and shall be responsible for the upkeep of the Health Law Society website.
- SECTION 5: The Treasurer shall collect all Health Law Society monies, keeping records thereof; shall receive, disburse, and invest the funds of the Health Law Society as directed by the Executive Committee and the rules and constitution of the Chicago-Kent Student Bar Association; and shall create a spending budget prior to every semester.
- SECTION 6: The Community Liaison will be responsible for establishing contact with community organizations, private firms, and government agencies to inform Health Law Society members of any opportunities available in regards to Health law; will create and establish health law related volunteer opportunities for Society members; and will be responsible for any so other duties that the president shall assign.
- SECTION 7: The Members at Large will be responsible for maintaining the interests of the general members of their respective divisions at all executive board meeting and all executive votes, and will be responsible for any so other duties that the president shall assign.
- SECTION 8: The term of the office shall be one year, which shall begin at the close of the last general society meeting of each school year.
- SECTION 9: In the event of a vacancy in the office of President, the duties, powers and responsibilities of the president shall be assumed immediately by the next officer in the line of succession as follows: Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Community Liaison, Member at Large day division, and Member at Large evening division. Any other vacancy will be filled by next in line office in the same order. If for this process cannot be followed the vacancy shall be given to a member who is elected by a majority vote of the general membership. Notice of the vacancy shall be give ten (10) days prior to holding such vote. Any member interested in the position may nominate themselves.
- SECTION 10: For purposes of this Article, a vacancy will arise upon resignation of an officer, or upon certification by two-thirds vote of the Executive Committee that an officer is mentally or physically unable to fulfill the duties of office. However, a veto will be enforced if both Members at Large vote against such action, at which point the final decision will be left to the faculty advisor of the Health Law Society.
- SECTION 11: For the purposes of ratifying the document at bar, the two founding members shall fill the positions of President and Vice President for the first year.

Article V: Executive Committee

SECTION 1: The Executive Committee shall be the managing body of the Health Law Society, and shall direct its affairs.

SECTION 2: The Executive Committee shall be comprised of the seven (7) elected Officers.

SECTION 3: The Executive Committee shall hold no less than three (3) meetings per academic year.

SECTION 4: As provided hereinabove, the Secretary will be responsible for keeping all Executive Committee minutes.

Article VI: Faculty Advisor

SECTION 1: The Health Law Society shall have a Faculty Advisor who is a professor at Chicago-Kent College of Law.

SECTION 2: The Faculty Advisor shall provide guidance to the Executive Committee and the president as needed relating to the activities and programs of the Health Law Society, and will hold any other powers provided by this constitution.

Article VII: Elections and Voting

SECTION 1: Eligibility

1. Only Members in good standing as provided hereinabove shall be entitled to vote in any election or hold office in the Health Law Society.

SECTION 2: Election Rules.

1. Each Society member will have one vote for each executive position, provided they have attended at least one (1) Health Law Society Meeting in the past year, the first election will be waived of this requirement.
2. Balloting shall be conducted separately for each position to be filled.
3. A candidate shall secure a position upon receiving a majority of votes of the Members present.
4. The Executive Committee may promulgate election rules, which rules shall serve as permanent rules unless amended by the Executive Committee.
5. The Vice President shall run all elections and count any ballots cast, with a re-count provided by the Treasurer and at least one (1) Member at Large.

Article VIII: General Meetings

SECTION 1: General Society meetings shall be held at least three (3) times during the school year, with the final meeting held at the close of the school year for the purpose of electing officers for the following school year.

SECTION 2: Notification of a General Society meeting must be provided to all Members seven (7) days prior to the meetings.

Article IX: Amendments

SECTION 1: This Constitution may be amended at the General Membership meeting of the Health Law Society by three-quarters (3/4) of the Members present or two-thirds (2/3) of the membership, whichever is less.

SECTION 2: An amendment must be proposed to the President or Secretary, in writing, not less than fourteen (14) days prior to the General Meeting at which the amendment will be considered. The proposed amendment must also be approved by two-thirds of the Executive Committee and circulated in writing to the Members one (1) week prior to the meeting at which the amendment will be considered.

SECTION 3: The president with the vote of at least one (1) Member at Large can veto any approved amendment if it is done in writing, within twenty-four hours of its approval, to the faculty advisor. The faculty advisor may overrule this veto.

Article 12: Bylaws

SECTION 1: The Executive Committee may adopt a set of Bylaws subject to the approval of the majority of members.

SECTION 2: Adopted Bylaws shall not be inconsistent with this Constitution.