

Sports and Entertainment Law Society

at the Chicago-Kent College of Law

ARTICLE I

Purpose

Section 1. Mission. SELS seeks to provide opportunities for students to learn about the sports and entertainment law fields. SELS shall accomplish this mission by hosting informational panels and social events, maintaining a website of relevant and helpful information regarding sports and entertainment topics, and generally fostering students' passion for and interest in sports and entertainment law.

ARTICLE II

Membership

Section 1. Eligibility. Membership shall be open to all J.D. students at the Chicago-Kent College of Law.

Section 2. Joining Procedure. A student is considered a member when they request to join the SELS list-serve. A student can make such a request by either (1) adding their name to a spreadsheet provided at the Chicago-Kent student organization fair, (2) adding their name to a spreadsheet provided at a SELS-sponsored event, or (3) submitting an email or verbal request to an SELS executive board member.

ARTICLE V

Executive Board and Elections

Section 1. Executive Board. The elected executive board members of this organization shall be President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer.

Section 2. Additional Board Members. SELS may appoint other board members at the discretion of the full executive board.

Section 3. Qualifications for Office. Any current member is eligible to hold office.

Section 4. Elections. The executive board members shall be elected annually through electronic voting. The outgoing president shall send an email to the membership announcing open positions for the next year. Members seeking those offices will submit statements. The outgoing president will send the candidate statements to the membership, who will reply with their votes. The outgoing president shall send results to the membership.

Section 4. Term of Office. The term of office for board members is one year.

Section 5. Vacancy in Office. Should the office of President become vacant, the Vice-President shall automatically become President.

ARTICLE VI

Amendment

Proposed amendments to these bylaws shall be submitted in writing to the Executive Board. The Board will use to either approve or deny the proposal.
